

ABOUT CEDARKIRK

Cedarkirk is your year-round camp and conference center. It is located along the Alafia River within 170 acres of woodlands, wetlands, and uplands. At Cedarkirk, in a place and time apart from busy lives, people find a variety of ways to experience God's love and grow closer to one another and God.

In 2011, Cedarkirk celebrated 40 years of ministry in southwest Florida. Cedarkirk is known for meaningful summer camp programs, dynamic retreats for children and adults, life-changing mission events, and a dedication to a ministry of hospitality.

PURPOSE OF RETREAT

Being Presbyterian matters deeply to us!

We have all participated in some of the best aspects of the PCUSA as well as wondered what the future holds.

During this retreat we will focus on what we want to be and what we want to do as a Presbytery. The Mission, Vision, Standing Rules Guide Team will be shepherding that conversation. There will be time for fellowship, sharing, worship and fun.

The retreat will begin at 5:00 p.m. on Sunday, May 6th and conclude at 3:00 p.m. on Monday, May 7th.

The retreat will include:
overnight accommodations, 3 meals,
and snacks.

Registration deadline: Friday, April 27, 2012.
